

Investing in China: What You Need to Know

Has manufacturing in China become too expensive? What changes has Xi Jinping made and why does it matter? What does 1 billion customers mean for you and your business? Learn about recent political and economic trends and their implications for the future as you consider what to look for, what to avoid and where to go for assistance when choosing an investment location or doing business in China.

Date

Tuesday, March 29, 2016

Time

9:00 -10:00 a.m. program

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

Speaker

Ms.Devorah (Worch) Kaufman, Chief Representative, North America, Zhuhai Commercial Service

Devorah (Worch) Kaufman is the North American Chief Representative for the Zhuhai (China) Commerce

Department.Devorah has worked for many years in various roles with greater Asia and China in import, export, consumer, biotechnology and trade development industries. She is a Global Certified Trade Professional, and has a Masters in East Asian Studies (UCLA).Devorah has been studying China and Chinese culture for over 30 years. In her spare time, she is involved in researching contemporary topics in business and social studies in China using native and Chinese language sources.

Location

World Trade Center St. Louis

7733 Forsyth Blvd., 22nd Floor Conference Center

St. Louis, MO 63105

Parking available at adjacent garage

Fees

$20 per person

A reservation is required and serves as a confirmation of payment. A 48-hour notice is required to cancel a reservation. Cancellations after the deadline will be charged 50% of original fee. All no-shows will be invoiced.

REGISTER NOW